Wilson Asks Neutrals to Break With Germans

NO COMPLICATIONS ARE EXPECTED TO ARISE OVER SINKING OF HOUSATONIC Present Situation Between States And Germany May Continue For Several Days. Washington Thinks

May Be Some Time Before Germans Sink American Ships
As All Sailing Before Feb. 1st Will Be Granted Immunity From Indiscriminate Attack—President Sends Invitation to Other Neutrals to Co-operate with the United States.

(By Morning Bulletin Special Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—It is not impossible that the present situation, following the severance of diplomatic relations, will continue several days before there are any evidences of Germany intending to halt her campaign of ruthlessness before President Wilson's final demand for respect to American rights, or whether she will follow after her plan and take the consequences.

With relations severed and the country preparing to meet the next step as it comes, officials are reflecting now upon the situation as it affects the cause of peace and the situation of the belligerents themselves.

Berlin Hopes Of The Break.
BERLIN, Feb. 4. (Wireless to Sayville).—Press despatches have reached Berlin, according to which diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States have been severed, and the Overseas News Agency. No official confirmation has been received.

Germans Are Busy.
LONDON, Feb. 4.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent telegraphs that up to one o'clock this afternoon no news had been received there from Germany relating to the German-American crisis. The censor has prevented the sending of German newspapers across the frontier to Holland.

U.S. Menace to German.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—(By Morning Bulletin Special Wire).—President Wilson has made a bold stroke to rally the moral force of all other neutral countries against that of the United States.

The opinion in diplomatic circles here is that European neutrals on the very doorstep of Germany, threatened by her military power, will be reluctant to take such a step. The effect of the severance of diplomatic relations is being eagerly awaited. This was the only one which was not expected. It is now waiting which followed the announcement yesterday of the break with Germany.

Still hopeful that Germany will not rush to sever relations with the United States, the administration is awaiting developments, but leaving nothing unprepared to meet the emergency of war.

Invitation To Neutrals.
The president's invitation to neutrals to follow his action was contained in a message to American diplomats to announce the break with Germany to governments to which it was accredited. It was contained in the following words:

"You will immediately notify the governments to which you are accredited that the United States, because of the German government's recent announcement of its intention to renew its campaign of unrestricted submarine warfare, has chosen to follow the course laid down by the United States in the case of the United States."

What Would Situation be Today if English Navy Were Not Between Germany and Us? Asks Ex-President—Hopes States May Not Be Lulled Into False Security From Sense of Allies' Protection.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—(By Morning Bulletin Special Wire).—The country's defence, "now the war is on us," and for the future as well, was advocated here today by former President Wm. H. Taft in an address on the League to Enforce Peace before the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

What would be our situation today if the English navy were not between us and Germany? Mr. Taft went on. "Can we afford to rely on the protection of another ally?" Would we wish to do so? We ought not to make this a temporary matter. We ought to adopt measures to make us independent.

There is danger that even now the sense of protection that the forces of the allies afford us as a barrier to German offensive may lull us into a false security and weaken our sense of duty to ourselves. The navy we shall doubtless increase in power and efficiency with all dispatch, but the navy is likely to be of much more growth unless we look ahead. It is said we cannot well use an army in this way. Of all guesses, that limiting the extent or demands of a war is the least reliable. We must resolutely form a strong army."

Plan Was To Shoot Prime Minister by Use of Poison Darts

Trial of Murder Plotters Opens in London—Darts Were to be Shot at Lloyd George and Mr. Henderson While Playing Golf at Derby—Attorney-General in Opening Address Refers to Prisoners at Desperate, Dangerous People

Derby, Feb. 5.—A sensation was created at the opening today of the case against Mrs. Alice Wheeldon, her daughters, Miss Ann Wheeldon and Mrs. Alfred George Mason, and Mrs. Mason's husband, all accused of conspiracy to murder Premier Lloyd George and Arthur Henderson, of the war council, when Attorney-General Smith alleged it had been intended to murder the premier by means of poisoned darts to be shot at him while he was playing golf.

Both the premier and Mr. Henderson were to be killed, he added, by means of poison, sent in tubes to Derby and handed by Mrs. Wheeldon to an agent, employed by the military authorities, who had ingratiated himself into her favor.

The poison comprised hydro-chloride, strychnine and an American Indian poison called "curer," said to be used in poisoning arrows. It was proposed to use the poison on darts which were to be shot at the premier at Walton Heath, where he plays golf.

The attorney-general said that the first government agent introduced another man in the government service to Mrs. Wheeldon.

"These two men," he continued, "called upon Mrs. Wheeldon on January 1, but she announced that they poison which was to be turned over to them was not ready."

When Mrs. Wheeldon was asked how much one unit contained when she last saw it, she answered "enough to kill five hundred men."

Asked as to the better way of poisoning the premier, Mrs. Wheeldon, according to the attorney-general, said the attorney had seen 1,000 in an attempt to poison Lloyd George and said an attempt also had been made on Lord Kitchener, former commander-in-chief of the empire. It would be possible, she suggested, continued the prosecutor, to drive a darts dipped with poison into the head of the victim and such an attempt had been contemplated, but Lord George suddenly left for France.

"Among other things," the prosecutor proposed to use a poisoned pin into the victim's hair."

APPROVE PEACE SPEECH
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Appr

*The world-wide sale of Goodyear Tires benefits
Canadian motorists.*

Goodyear Tires have gained their tremendous prestige on four factors alone—greater mileage, lower cost-per-mile, great comfort, freedom from annoyance. The greatest proof of this is the fact that the sale of Goodyear Tires has grown steadily amongst all classes and races of motorists—and is growing steadily all the time.

The world-wide sale of Goodyear Tires benefits Canadian motorists. It enables us to offer better tires at lower prices—and adds Goodyear Service to the value you get.

Mileage and Service

A world-wide organization puts us in close touch with all the markets for raw material and enables us to buy to best advantage. The tremendous production necessary to meet world-wide demand keeps factory overhead cost on each tire at a minimum. This saving is put into the betterment of tires.

Canadian motorists are finding two outstanding Goodyear features—mileage and service. These examples of mileages made in all parts of Canada, on all kinds of roads, are typical.

The Goodyear Service Station Dealer has a real and valuable service to offer.

He will:

Inspect your tires and advise you as to the need for and value of repairs; see that your tires are properly inflated for the load you carry; test your wheels for alignment; show you the advantages of more modern rims, of inside tire protectors, of our Tire-Saver Kit including all things necessary to meet tire trouble on the road; supply you at once with Goodyear Tires, Tubes and Tire-Saver Accessories.

In the Goodyear factories are chemists and engineers who devote their time to improving tires. They discover and invent new methods of manufacture, new formulae for materials, each a means of making Goodyear Tires give greater service and lower cost. This is costly work. In a smaller institution it would be prohibitive. But spread over the millions of Goodyear Tires this cost becomes infinitesimal per tire. Manufacturing, as we do, in almost unbelievably large quantities we are able to employ machinery up to the most advanced, and costly per machine, but the cost is so small that it is negligible in quality.

CONGRESS LEADERS HEAR THE NEWS

Washington, Feb. 4.—At the capital the news of the president's decision to send the fleet into the Pacific was deeply mourned by the congress.

One of the most prominent members of the Senate, Judge of Massachusetts, Republican, of the foreign relations committee.

President Marshall, notified in advance for a joint session of congress.

It is sincerely to be hoped that this necessary break will not drag the fleet into the Pacific. There are still, however, to endure beyond which congress expects, and after badly frozen, removed from the west coast.
